TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION OF THE STATE.

SECTION 33. Territorial jurisdiction; limitations on.

34. Legislative consent to purchase, etc., of lands by United States for public use; jurisdiction over.

Territorial
jurisdiction,
limitations on.

33. The sovereignty and jurisdiction of this State extends to all places within its boundaries as established by the Constitution, but the extent of such jurisdiction over places that have been or may be ceded to, purchased, or condemned by the United States, is qualified by the terms of such cession or the laws under which such purchase or condemnation has been or may be made.

Legislative consent to purchase,
etc., of lands by United States for public use;
over.

34. The Legislature consents to the purchase or condemnation by the United States of any tract of land within this State for the purpose of erecting forts, magazines, arsenals, dock yards, and other needful buildings, upon the express condition that all civil process issued from the Courts of this State, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of this State, against any person charged with crime, may be served and executed thereon in the same mode and manner and by the same officers as if the purchase or condemnation had not been made.

CHAPTER III.

GENERAL RIGHTS OF THE STATE OVER PERSONS.

SECTION 37.—Rights over persons enumerated.

Rights over persons enumerated.

37. The State has the following rights over persons within its limits, to be exercised in the cases and in the manner provided by law:

1. To punish for crime;
